

How to download images

You can freely download images of the works published in our database.

Use of images

Images can be used free of charge without requesting approval, provided that their use satisfies the following conditions.

Not-for-profit use that also corresponds to one of items 1 to 3 below:

1. Use by a museum
or public institution, etc.
2. Use in a publication with a circulation that does not exceed 2,000 copies
3. Publication in an academic paper, etc.

Please also note that when using images, you must:

- Clearly state the following credit: "Reproduced from Tobacco & Salt Museum collection database, Art Research Center, Ritsumeikan University"
- When publishing, at least one complimentary copy (including a tag to locate the above-mentioned credit) must be provided to the Tobacco & Salt Museum

If you wish to use images for profit, or in any way that does not satisfy the requirements in items 1 to 3 above, or you wish to provide high-resolution digital images, please contact us at the link below. Images can be used for a fee in such cases after going through certain procedures.

TOBACCO & SALT MUSEUM Curatorial Department Contact Us

<https://www.tabashio.jp/inquiry/en/input.html>